CHAPTER 3

Settling the Northern Colonies, 1619–1700

PART I: CHECKING YOUR PROGRESS

A. True-False
Where the statement is true, circle T; where it is false, circle F.

1. T F  The dominant form of the Protestant faith among New England’s early colonists was Calvinism, as developed by the Geneva reformer John Calvin.
2. T F  The most fervent Puritans believed that the Church of England was corrupt because it did not restrict its membership to “visible saints” who had experienced conversion.
3. T F  The large, separatist Plymouth Colony of Pilgrims strongly influenced smaller Puritan Massachusetts Bay.
4. T F  Massachusetts Bay restricted the vote for elections to the General Court to adult male members of the Congregational Church.
5. T F  Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson were both banished for organizing political rebellions against the Massachusetts Bay authorities.
6. T F  Rhode Island was the most religiously and politically tolerant of the New England colonies.
8. T F  After King Charles II was restored to the throne of England, the crown attempted to gain tighter control over its colonies, especially defiant Massachusetts.
9. T F  King Philip’s War enabled New England’s Indians to recover their numbers and morale.
10. T F  New York became the most democratic and economically equal of the middle colonies.
11. T F  Dutch New Netherland was conquered in 1664 by military expedition from the colony of New Sweden in Delaware.
12. T F  William Penn originally wanted his Pennsylvania colony to be settled exclusively by his fellow English Quakers.
13. T F  Later non-Quaker immigrants to Pennsylvania like the Scots-Irish welcomed the peaceful relations with the Indians established by William Penn’s policies.
14. T F  The middle colonies’ broad, fertile river valleys enabled them to develop a richer and more successful agricultural economy than that of New England.
15. T F  The middle colonies were characterized by tightly knit, ethically homogeneous communities that shared a common sense of religious purpose.

B. Multiple Choice
Select the best answer and circle the corresponding letter.

1. The principal motivation shaping the earliest settlements in New England was

   c. economic opportunity and the chance for a better life.
   d. a spirit of adventure and interest in exploring the New World.
   e. a missionary zeal to convert the Indians to Calvinism.
2. Compared with the Plymouth Colony, the Massachusetts Bay Colony was
   a. dedicated to complete separation from the Church of England.
   b. afflicted with corrupt and incompetent leaders.
   c. more focused on religious rather than political liberty.
   d. larger and more prosperous economically.
   e. afflicted with incompetent leadership.

3. One reason that the Massachusetts Bay Colony was not a true democracy is that
   a. only church members could vote for the governor and the General Court.
   b. political offices were dominated by the clergy.
   c. people were not permitted to discuss issues freely in their own towns.
   d. the governor and his assistants were appointed rather than elected.
   e. the colony was ultimately under control of the English kings.

4. The essential heresy that caused Anne Hutchinson to be convicted and banished from Massachusetts Bay was her declared belief that
   a. the government of John Winthrop was corrupt and tyrannical.
   b. the Puritan elect were just as sinful and those who had been “predestined” to damnation.
   c. she had received a direct revelation from God that the saved did not need to obey either human or divine law.
   d. the Bible did not teach that a personal conversion experience was necessary for salvation.
   e. Calvin’s doctrine that people were predestined to either heaven or hell violated fundamental human freedom.

5. Roger Williams based the religious freedom of his colony of Rhode Island on his belief that
   a. it really did not matter what religious beliefs people held, because all were more or less equal.
   b. the corrupt Massachusetts Bay Colony had proved that religious uniformity did not work.
   c. political democracy inevitably required freedom of speech and religion.
   d. God had created human beings fundamentally good and able to choose the right.
   e. civil government had no right to regulate religious behavior or individual conscience.

6. Which of the following New England settlements did not become a separate colony, but remained under the direct control of Massachusetts?

PART II: APPLYING WHAT YOU HAVE LEARNED

Answer TWO of the following in well-written paragraphs. Use more paper, if necessary.

1. Compare and contrast the New England and middle colonies in terms of motives for founding, religious and social composition, economic foundations, and political development.

2. How did the Puritans’ distinctive religious outlook and church organization shape the politics, society, and culture of Massachusetts Bay and most of the other New England colonies?

3. “The dissent from Puritanism was as important in the formation of New England as Puritanism itself.” How valid is this statement? Defend your answer.

4. Contrast Puritan New England’s policies toward the Indians with the initial policies of the Quaker settlers in Pennsylvania. Why was Pennsylvania’s Indian policy ultimately unsuccessful?

5. Describe and analyze the English government’s relationship with New England and the middle colonies during the course of the seventeenth century. Is the term benign neglect an accurate description of English colonial policy?

6. Discuss the development of religious and political freedom in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, and Pennsylvania. How did the greater degree of such freedoms enjoyed by Rhode Island and Pennsylvania affect life in those colonies?

7. What economic, social, and ethnic conditions typical of the early southern colonies (see Chapter 2) were generally absent in the New England and middle colonies? What characteristics did the middle colonies have that were not generally present in the South?
